ERSTE Stiftung

LEGALLY BINDING DECLARATION

According to its legal basis (statute law, articles of association, deed of foundation, etc.) and its actual conduct of business, the applicant directly and exclusively serves non-profit purposes and will use the grants from ERSTE Foundation solely for such purposes.

Members or associations of the applicant do not receive any profit shares in their capacity as members or associates. They receive from the applicant's funds only those moneys or other non-cash benefits which result directly from the non-profit activity or from ordinary business transactions that the applicant enters into with third parties within its permitted activity (e.g. customary local payments because of a service agreement or contract for work).

If a member or associate leaves the applicant, only assets that have been made available to the applicant shall be returned, and no other benefits shall be received. If the applicant is dissolved, any liquidation assets shall be used for non-profit purposes. The applicant is not subject to composition, bankruptcy or liquidation proceedings. The applicant has not submitted this project to any supporters/supporting institutions to date save those mentioned in this request.

In the event of funding, the applicant agrees to the publication by ERSTE Foundation of the nature, purpose and amount of the funds and brief information on the project.
